THRILLING STORY OF KIDNAPPING

But Some Essential Details in Boy's Confession Are Lacking.

Ogden, Oct. 19.-Leslie Bellingham, age 14 years, of St. Joseph, a small station on the Sait Lake & Ogden railroad line near Salt Lake, ap proached Rural Mail Carrier H, Child on Tuesday morning as the latter was making his delivery near Riverdale, about four miles out of Ogden, and told a tale of kidnaping by a gipsy band rivaling a yellow-backed novel. Young Bellingham said that he and a companion, Douglas Sprinkhalt, age 13 years, while on their way to school on Monday morning, had asked a band of passing gipsies to give them a ride to the schoolhouse. As soon as the boys were safely in the wagon, the wanderers held them literally as prisoners and the boys were compelled to remain in the party. Monday night the party camped in the jungles a few miles south of Riverdale. Early Tuesday morning, Young Belingham was sent to the river to water one of the horses and managed to make his escape. Mr. Child took the lad to his home and provided him with a meal, after which the boy left, stating that he intended to make his way back on foot to his home. Mr. Child notified the sheriff's office and all day Tuesday Deputy Sheriff John Hutchens searched along the river bed and on all the county roads for a gipsy camp and the other boy, but was unsuccossful. The officers are very much in doubt regarding the boy's story. Bellingham said that he and a compan-

Eczema All Over Baby's Body. "When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczoma spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was cured." Mrs. Inez Lewis, Baring, Me. Hood's Sarsaparilla has effected thousands of cures where a blood-pur-

IN DISTANT MEXICO

Colonia Pacheco, Mexico, Oct. 7.— Our little community is just emerging from the most severe siege of sick-ness in its history, nearly 20 per cent of our population having been attack-ed during the past four months. Three times has our village been plunged into mourning through the call of the angel of death. The first to go was George Heber James, a son of the late Joseph H. James. He left a wife and one child, but since his demise his correction widow, has been blessed. sorrowing widow has been blessed with another spirit to comfort her in her hour of deep affliction. The next to answer the summons was Miss Hortense Porter, daughter of W. A. Porter. She was in the bloom of young womanhood, and no sweeter or more lovable character was ever called more lovable character was ever called to grace the mansion of heaven than this youthful embodiment of innocence

A few days since we parted with one of our brightest and most useful members in the person of William Carroll, son of the late Willard Carroll. This young man was prompt in the fulfiling of every duty, full of faith and integ-rity and ever ready to take a stand in behalf of all that is noble and true, of

O grave where is thy victory?"

would be assured.

Howard Kartchner surprised his friends a short time ago by quietly marrying Mrs. Ila B. Turley of Garcia.

COLONIST RATES END.

Heavy Travel Marks Windup of Record Business.

Today is the last day on which colonist traffic from the east will pass through this city, and all railroads are "loaded to the guards" with colonist travel. The Salt Lake Route is putting on special trains to handle the business for southern California and the equipment of the Short Line is strained in providing means for the transportation of the easterners to the northwest.

"The colonist business is 25 per cent heavier than in any previous year since the colonist rates were in effect," said Asst. General Passenger Agent D. S. Asst. General Passenger Agent D. S. Spencer of the Oregon Short Line this morning. "I look for the business to increase each year, until the west will be sprinkled over with new settlers of the solid and desirable type which has built up the country districts of the east. The recent financial depression, I believe, has been an incentive for western travel, as the people of the east wish to get out of the centers of depression and come out west where depression and come out west where they can breathe the mountain air and they can breathe the mountain air and become inoculated with the true western spirit which has made this country what it is. Opportunities in Utah, in Idaho, in all the west, are staring men in the face, and these are some of the reasons which account for the heavy colonist business this year."
